

Band/ Musician/ DJ - Letter of application for "Fête de la Musique" in Berlin on the 21st of June 2010

Dear bands, singers and musicians,

Without you and your music the Fête de la Musique wouldn't exist - neither in Berlin, nor in one of the other 340 cities in the world where the Fête de la Musique - the international day of music - is celebrated every year on the summer solstice, the 21st of June.

To have a great Fête de la Musique this year, just like every year since 1995, we would like to invite you to participate in it:

independent of music style, no matter whether amateur or professional musicians, everybody can take part. All concerts in the Fête de la Musique are free of charge and therefore all participating musicians play for free on that day.

Instead of money, the Fête de la Musique provides advertising (programme, posters, media and internet presentation) and offers an audience which celebrates the Fête de la Musique and its artists with energy and enthusiasm.

We, the Fête Company (the organizers of Fête de la Musique in Berlin), only mediate between artists and stage-organizers/partners, but we aren't directly responsible for individual stages. The Fête Company collects all applications and suggests bands to our partners. Then the partners decide themselves which artists they would like to feature on their stage. The selected bands will usually be informed by our stage partners by the middle of April. But please don't forget: The Fête de la Musique isn't a contest. Acceptance or rejection has more to do with capacity than with "winning or losing".

Deadline for all applications is the 8th of March 2010

Please answer all the questions on our application and send by post or fax (not by e-mail). All applicants must have a freely available selection (at least 3 songs) of music on the Internet.

Best regards,
Fête Company
